

Upsets at Wimbledon 2019!

The Wimbledon tennis championship has just started and there have been plenty of upsets already. A lot of big names have been stunned! Here are the biggest upsets of the tournament so far:

Opelka Outlasts Wawrinka 📷

The 21-year-old defeats the 22nd seed 7-5, 3-6, 4-6, 6-4, 8-6. #Wimbledon pic.twitter.com/KGsAifUcam

— ATP Tour (@ATP_Tour) July 3, 2019

1. Reilly Opelka beat Stan Wawrinka

3-time Grand Slam winner Stan Wawrinka was shown the door in the 2nd round of the championship by a 6 foot 11 inch tall unseeded American. The Swiss star was under pressure right from the start as he lost to World number 63, Reilly Opelka. Opelka is already making waves for his big serves, and won 7-5, 3-6, 4-6, 6-4, 8-6,

“The biggest win of her career” 📷 @PutintsevaYulia upsets world No.2 Naomi Osaka 7-6(4), 6-2 on Centre Court to book her second round spot #Wimbledon pic.twitter.com/POQYpFsQqu

— Wimbledon (@Wimbledon) July 1, 2019

2. Yulia Putintseva beat Naomi Osaka

After winning back to back Grand Slams, Naomi Osaka is now struggling get past the opening week at Wimbledon! The Japanese star was up against Kazakhstan’s Yulia Putintseva in the opening round. Yulia, playing at center court for the first time stunned the World number 2 Osaka 7-6, 6-2.

What a day 📷 @Wimbledon pic.twitter.com/8O3vjMT9oi

— Coco Gauff (@CocoGauff) July 1, 2019

3. Cori Gauff beat Venus Williams

The biggest upset of the tournament also came at the center court when 15-year-old American Cori Gauff beat 5-time Grand Slam champion Venus Williams! Cori playing her first ever Grand Slam match, beat Williams 6-4, 6-4 in straight sets. Cori considers Venus and Serena to be her idols and said that her dream was to win the opening match against the senior Williams sister.

Stay tuned for more!

Written by: Yash Chawla. Yash is former Anchor of NDTV with over 9 years of experience as a sports journalist.